

June Missions Prayer Newsletter Part 1 of 4 June 7, 2021

Skeeter Powell – David’s Table, Greenville, SC - skeeter.powell@gmail.com

Prayers:

- We have friends and family that need prayer. Some are struggling. Some just want to praise God for His goodness.
- Volunteers are needed for Camp David, Sept. 10-12.

Important Dates:

- 6/12-16 - “Best Week of Their Lives” Camp at Carolina Point.

God Story:

- Kevin and his mom, Ruby, were evicted. Mom is not healthy and the shock of the eviction sent her to the hospital and the ICU. She is now under hospice care. But there is so much more to this story because Kevin has moved in with one of our leaders. We planned a surprise birthday party for him and had 15-20 of his friends surprise him at Texas Roadhouse. Kevin has been loved on so well by several of our leaders. Even though I have known Kevin for over 20 years, I have never seen him smile so genuinely or spontaneously as that night. It would be fun to think we loved him so much that it turned his life around. But we know better, it was the love of Jesus that Kevin felt that night.

Jacob – Serving in Eastern Europe - On a Midterm Assignment.

Prayers:

- Pray for energy, perseverance and rest.
- Pray for the Father to continue revealing Himself to seeking hearts here.

Greg Queen – IMB Church Mobilizer – GQueen@imb.org

Prayers:

- Angela & I celebrate our 29th anniversary.
- Praise for the missionary, George, who is well enough to be medically evacuated out of Kenya and is now in the US. Pray for his continued recovery.
- Pray for the SBC meetings June 13-16, and for meeting with church leaders.
- Pray for India. They now have a “Covid god” they pray to for relief from the pandemic. Pray for salvation and understanding of the One True God.

Rebecca C. – Teacher at International School in Central Asia - ra.carino@gmail.com

Important Dates:

- 6/11 - Last day of school. YAY! Pray for these last days of finishing everything and saying goodbye to students and faculty.
- 6/14 - I am hoping to return to the States for a 2 month stateside visit. There is still much to do, pray for the logistics so I don’t have to postpone again.

God Story:

- The girl in the photo with me is J, one of my 8th grade students. I’ve known her since she was in elementary school, and while I taught both of her brothers, this was the year I was looking forward to, finally having her in my class, and it was worth the wait. She is one who brings out the best in others, she loves to laugh, always has kind and encouraging words for others, and she randomly inserts cute animal pictures into her work. This past year, the Father has made it clear to her family that they should return to the states. This will be a very tough goodbye for me, for J and for so many students who love her. Please pray for J & students like her who are saying goodbye to the place they have called home for most of their lives. Many of them are returning to a country where externally they look like everyone else, but internally they feel very different & like they don’t fit in.
